

The Name of God

Mark each of the following scenarios as either “appropriate” or “inappropriate”:

- 1) In religion class, the Name of God is used repeatedly in order to teach students about Him.

- 2) When Mark sees something amazing, he responds, “Oh my God!”

- 3) Barry hit his finger with a hammer, and shouted out the Name of Jesus in frustration.

- 4) In philosophical discussions, Julie talks about God, using His Name.

- 5) We say God’s Name often in prayer.

The key is, if we are talking respectfully about God or to God when we say His Name, it is appropriate; saying it casually, in frustration, or disrespectfully, is not.
