

Lesson 24 Activity:

Ask students if they know their baptism day. This is a day that should be celebrated. Have them find out from their families, when they were baptized. If possible, they should also find out where, and who baptized them. Next session, let them share what they learned, along with any pictures.